LPHR public statement on current military offensive on Gaza

As lawyers committed to the protection and advancement of Palestinian human rights, we reiterate for the fourth successive day our call upon the international community to act decisively to halt the latest resort to sustained military action in the Gaza Strip, following Israel's announcement on 8 July 2014 that they have launched a military operation codenamed Operation Protective Edge.

LPHR is enormously concerned by today's report from the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights stating that as of 10:00am today, 94 Palestinian civilians, including 26 children and 18 women, have been killed following Israeli military strikes. Another 799 people have been injured, of whom 249 are children and 165 are women. The number of houses targeted and destroyed is now 149.

LPHR remains acutely concerned at the apparent systematic targeting of civilian facilities and homes in disregard for the protection of civilians. We are deeply appalled at the report that at 04:55 this morning an Israeli missile struck the Palestinian Care Association building in Beit Lahia, killing two women with disabilities: Suha Musbah Abu Sa'da, 39; and 'Ola Hussein Enshassi, 31. Another three women with disabilities and a supervisor were reportedly injured.

In light of the apparently systematic and unlawful use of force against civilian objects causing civilian casualties, LPHR reiterates its urgent call upon the parties to military action, Israeli or Palestinian, to fulfil their binding legal obligations under international humanitarian law and international human rights law and immediately refrain from the indiscriminate and disproportionate use of force against civilians or civilian objects.

LPHR further urgently calls upon the international community to ensure that credible investigations and full legal accountability is secured for all deaths and injuries caused by unlawful military actions.

LPHR shall continue to closely monitor the current military offensive on Gaza and will make further public statements as and when necessary.
