

10 August 2014

LPHR public statement on current military offensive on Gaza

As lawyers committed to the protection and advancement of Palestinian human rights, we reiterate our call upon the international community to act decisively to halt the latest resort to sustained military action in the Gaza Strip, following Israel's announcement on 8 July 2014 that they have launched a military operation codenamed Operation Protective Edge. The onset of an Israeli military ground offensive on 17 July 2014 had, as feared, exacerbated the enormous harm to the civilian population of Gaza. LPHR deeply regrets that hostilities resumed on 8 August 2014 after the expiry of a 72 hour humanitarian truce, albeit at a lower intensity than during the days prior to the lull.

LPHR is gravely concerned by today's report from the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) stating that as of 08:00 today, the total number of Palestinian civilian fatalities since the start of Operation Protective Edge is at least 1,402, including 456 children and 237 women. 11,855 houses have been destroyed or severely damaged. This is over 85 per cent higher than the equivalent figure, approximately 6,400, recorded during the "Cast Lead" operation in 2008/9. 425,000 Palestinian civilians have been forcibly displaced and are hosted in emergency shelters or with host families. Electricity supply to households is only between three and six hours a day and half of the population remains without or with very little running water.

LPHR reiterates its extremely serious concern that civilians and civilian objects have been indiscriminately and disproportionately targeted by Israeli military attacks in disregard for the protection of civilians. Our letter recently published in the Guardian highlights this grave concern with a specific focus on the legality of Israel's policy directly targeting family homes.

LPHR further reiterates its urgent call upon the parties to military action, Israeli or Palestinian, to fulfil their binding legal obligations under international humanitarian law and international human rights law and immediately refrain from the indiscriminate and disproportionate use of force against civilians or civilian objects.

LPHR further urgently calls upon the international community to ensure that credible investigations and full legal accountability is secured for all deaths and injuries caused by unlawful military actions. We fully endorse the statement made by UNRWA spokesperson, Chris Gunness, that 'Gaza is beyond the realm of humanitarian action alone, and has moved into the realm of accountability'.

LPHR shall continue to closely monitor the current military offensive on Gaza and will make further public statements as and when necessary.