

lawyers for palestinian human rights

LPHR is delighted to hold a public film screening at the elegant Mosaic Rooms of Khaled Jarrar's award winning 2012 documentary film on restriction of movement, Infiltrators. Drinks and canapés will be served after the film screening.

Film Synopsis:

Shot hand-held, often covertly and at some personal risk, Infiltrators draws audiences into a high stakes 'game' of cat and mouse, following Palestinians in the West Bank as they seek routes through, under, around and over a bewildering array of barriers and walls

7:30pm – 10.00pm

Tuesday 19 November 2013

Entry Fee: £5 non-LPHR members; £2 LPHR members

The Mosaic Rooms, A.M. Qattan Foundation, 226 Cromwell Road, SW5 0SW

RSVP to: contact@lphr.org.uk

If you would like to invite one other individual to attend with you, please state this when you RSVP. Spaces are limited so please RSVP quickly in order to avoid disappointment.

Please note that LPHR AGM (for members only) will take place prior to this event. Therefore doors will only open at 7:30 pm..

Lawyers for Palestinian Human Rights is a registered charity in England and Wales (1142158)