

LPHR Trustee Profile

Rachel Waller: Rachel Waller is a solicitor in the Dispute Resolution department at Fisher Meredith having qualified in 2012.

Rachel focuses primarily on compensation claims for individuals, including historic abuse and discrimination matters brought against public authorities. Rachel also deals with a wide range of dispute resolution and civil litigation, including particularly data protection and privacy matters, defamation, protection from harassment, nuisance, planning applications, and general contract matters.

Rachel has a previous background in environmental justice, and has a Masters in Environmental Law.

In addition to being co-chair and trustee of Lawyers for Palestinian Human Rights charitable trust, Rachel is a member of the Solicitors International Human Rights Group, the Haldane Society, the UK Environmental Law Association and Wild Law UK.